Registered Office: Office 2, 60 Gold Street, Northampton, United Kingdom, NN1 1RS

Welcome to Watten Power Limited ("Watten Power", "we", "us", "our"). These Terms and Conditions of Use ("Agreement") govern your access to and use of our website at www.wattenpower.com (the "Website") and any related products or services we make available through it (collectively, the "Services"). Please read this Agreement carefully before using the Website.

Watten Power Limited is a private limited company registered in England and Wales under company number 17050993, with its registered office at Office 2, 60 Gold Street, Northampton, United Kingdom, NN1 1RS. You may contact us at info@wattenpower.com or by telephone at [number to be confirmed].

Watten Power operates as a specialist supplier and installer of energy products manufactured by third-party brands. We do not manufacture any of the products we supply. This means that intellectual property in the products themselves, and any product warranties, belong to and are issued by the respective Manufacturers. These Terms govern your use of the Website and our services — the purchase and warranty terms that apply to products are set out in our separate Terms of Sale.

By continuing to browse or use the Website, you confirm that you have read and agree to this Agreement in full. If you do not agree, please discontinue use of the Website. We reserve the right to update this Agreement at any time; continued use following any update constitutes acceptance of the revised terms.

1. Access to and Use of the Website

1.1 Your Responsibilities

You are responsible for ensuring your device, browser, and internet connection are suitable to access the Website. Watten Power does not warrant that the Website will be available at all times or free from interruptions. We may suspend, restrict, or withdraw access to all or part of the Website at any time, including for maintenance, security, or operational reasons, without prior notice.

1.2 Account Registration

Certain features of the Website may require you to register an account. By registering, you agree to:

- provide accurate, complete, and current information
- keep your login credentials secure and confidential
- notify us promptly if you suspect any unauthorised access to your account
- update your account details if your information changes

We may suspend or terminate accounts that we reasonably believe are being misused or operated in breach of this Agreement.

1.3 Permitted Uses

We grant you a limited, personal, non-exclusive, revocable right to access and use the Website for the following purposes:

- browsing information about our products and services

- submitting enquiries, quotation requests, or purchase orders in good faith
- accessing product documentation, installation guidance, or technical resources we make available
- saving or printing Website content for your own personal or professional reference

1.4 Prohibited Conduct

You must not use the Website in any way that:

- is unlawful, fraudulent, deceptive, threatening, or otherwise harmful
- infringes the intellectual property, privacy, or other rights of Watten Power, any Manufacturer, or any third party
- involves the use of automated tools, bots, scrapers, or crawlers to extract content without our written consent
- seeks to gain unauthorised access to any part of our Website, servers, or connected systems
- introduces malicious code, viruses, trojans, or any harmful software
- disrupts or degrades the performance or security of the Website
- misrepresents your identity or your affiliation with any business or individual

Violations of the above may result in immediate account suspension, removal of access, and where appropriate, referral to relevant authorities.

1.5 Intellectual Property — Website Content

All content on the Website created by Watten Power — including written text, company branding, logos, graphics, layout, and original imagery — is owned by or licensed to Watten Power Limited. You may not reproduce, republish, or commercially exploit such content without our prior written consent.

Product images, brand names, logos, technical data, and other materials relating to third-party Manufacturers displayed on this Website remain the intellectual property of those respective Manufacturers. Watten Power displays such materials under licence or with permission for the purpose of marketing and selling those products. No rights in Manufacturer intellectual property are transferred to you by virtue of browsing this Website or making a purchase.

Manufacturer Brands: Watten Power is an authorised reseller and installer of products from a range of third-party manufacturers. All manufacturer brand names, logos, and trademarks displayed on this Website are the property of their respective owners and are used by Watten Power solely in its capacity as an authorised distribution and installation partner.

1.6 Third-Party Links

The Website may include links to the websites of Manufacturers, certification bodies, regulatory authorities, or other third parties. These links are provided for reference and convenience only. Watten Power does not control, endorse, or accept responsibility for the content or practices of any third-party website. Accessing any such site is at your own risk.

1.7 User-Submitted Content

Where the Website allows you to submit content such as reviews, enquiries, or comments ("User Content"), you agree that your submissions are accurate, lawful, and do not infringe any third-party rights. We reserve the right to remove or edit User Content at our sole discretion without notice. By submitting User Content, you grant us a non-exclusive, royalty-free licence to use, display, and reproduce it in connection with the operation of our Website.

2. Our Services — Supply and Installation

- 2.1 Watten Power provides two principal categories of service: (a) the supply of energy products sourced from third-party Manufacturers, and (b) the professional installation and commissioning of those products at your premises.
- 2.2 As a supplier, Watten Power acts as the seller of goods. All consumer rights arising from a purchase — including rights to repair, replacement, or refund — are exercisable against Watten Power as seller, in addition to any Manufacturer Warranty that accompanies the product.
- 2.3 As an installer, Watten Power is responsible for the quality, safety, and compliance of the installation work it carries out. Installation services are delivered by our directly employed engineers or by vetted and approved sub-contractors operating to the same standards.
- 2.4 Watten Power does not manufacture any of the products it supplies. All product-level warranties, performance guarantees, and technical specifications are those of the respective Manufacturer. We will support you in accessing and making claims under any Manufacturer Warranty, but the terms and duration of those warranties are determined by the Manufacturer, not by Watten Power.
- 2.5 Full details of our ordering process, pricing, delivery, installation, warranty support, cancellation rights, and remedies are set out in our Terms of Sale, which should be read alongside this Agreement.

3. Product and Service Information on the Website

- 3.1 Product descriptions, specifications, technical datasheets, performance ratings, and imagery displayed on the Website are sourced from or based on information provided by the relevant Manufacturer. While we take care to present this information accurately, Watten Power cannot guarantee that all third-party product information on the Website is complete, current, or free from error at all times.
- 3.2 Product specifications and availability are subject to change by the Manufacturer without notice. Where a confirmed order is affected by a specification change, we will inform you before proceeding.
- 3.3 Images of products are for illustrative purposes and may not reflect the exact appearance, colour, or finish of the delivered item. Minor variations are normal and do not constitute a fault.
- 3.4 Any energy generation estimates, savings projections, or performance figures quoted on the Website are indicative only and are based on typical conditions and published Manufacturer data. Actual performance will vary depending on installation-specific factors including orientation, shading, local weather, and usage patterns. Such estimates do not form part of any contractual specification unless confirmed in writing in your Order Confirmation.

4. Limitation of Liability

- 4.1 Nothing in this Agreement limits or excludes our liability for death or personal injury resulting from our negligence, fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, or any other matter for which liability cannot be excluded by law.
- 4.2 Subject to clause 4.1, and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law:
 - Watten Power shall not be liable for any indirect, consequential, or special loss, including loss of profit, anticipated energy savings, business interruption, or loss of data

- our total liability arising from any single transaction shall not exceed the amount paid by you for the relevant product or service

4.3 Watten Power is not liable for defects, underperformance, or failures arising from the design or manufacture of any third-party product. Such matters are the responsibility of the relevant Manufacturer and are addressed through the applicable Manufacturer Warranty. Our liability as seller relates to conformity of goods with their description, satisfactory quality, and fitness for purpose.

4.4 We are not liable for any losses arising from reliance on energy estimates, savings projections, or performance data provided on the Website, unless such figures have been specifically confirmed in writing as part of your Order Confirmation.

5. Website Security

5.1 We take reasonable technical and organisational steps to protect the security and integrity of our Website and its users. However, we cannot guarantee that the Website will be free from cyber threats, malicious software, or unauthorised access at all times.

5.2 You are responsible for maintaining appropriate security software on your own devices. Watten Power accepts no liability for loss or damage resulting from security incidents that originate from your device or network.

6. Data Protection and Privacy

6.1 The collection and use of personal data via this Website is governed by our Privacy Policy, which forms part of this Agreement and is available on the Website. We process personal data in accordance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation and the Data Protection Act 2018.

6.2 Where you make a purchase that includes an Installation Service, we may share relevant customer and site information with our approved installation partners for the sole purpose of delivering the agreed service. Such sharing is carried out in accordance with our Privacy Policy.

7. General Legal Provisions

7.1 Governing Law

This Agreement is governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales. Consumers resident in Scotland or Northern Ireland retain the right to bring proceedings in their local courts under applicable law.

7.2 Entire Agreement

This Agreement, together with our Terms of Sale, Privacy Policy, Cookie Policy, and Refunds & Returns Policy, constitutes the full agreement between you and Watten Power in relation to use of the Website and our services, superseding all prior discussions or representations.

7.3 Severability

If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable, that provision shall be severed and the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

7.4 Waiver

Our failure to enforce any provision of this Agreement at any time does not constitute a waiver of our right to enforce it in the future.

7.5 Non-Assignment

You may not transfer or assign any rights or obligations under this Agreement without our prior written consent. Watten Power may assign its rights under this Agreement without restriction.

7.6 Updates

We may update this Agreement at any time. The effective date shown at the top of this document will reflect the most recent revision. Your continued use of the Website following any update constitutes acceptance of the revised terms.
